My name is, Megan Marshall

I'm a graphic designer with well developed skills in user experience design, design thinking, business design, creativity and innovation.

I am highly competitive, self-driven and enthusiastic about everything I do. I believe the greater the challenge the greater the opportunity is to grow.

I regard myself as a well-adjusted individual where integrity, consideration for others, and perseverance are of great importance. I am motivated and manage to work well independently as well as in a team and always up for anything.
